

Internship Opportunity Communications Intern

Health Net of West Michigan (HNWM) has an opening for a Communications Intern. The communications intern will have the opportunity to develop leadership skills and explore interests in communications, internal and external communications functions, social media, and project planning. Scheduled hours are flexible within the hours of 8:30 am – 5:00 pm Monday through Friday. The ideal candidate will have effective time management and organization skills, knowledge of social media platforms, basic design knowledge, strong writing skills, and must be able to work as part of a team in a collaborative setting. We offer an innovative and diverse workplace with exposure to a variety of communications functions in a nonprofit setting. Desired candidates must be a junior or senior pursuing a degree in communications, health communications, or public relations. Students pursuing a Master of Public Health are welcome to apply as well.

This internship includes a stipend to cover internship costs and must be completed to satisfy hourly requirements for the intern's academic department.

To apply, please submit cover letter and resume to: careers@healthnetwm.org
